REVIEW OF ACCOUNTING QUESTION PAPER

- Being a Steinbeck fan, and having read a number of other Steinbeck titles, I (thankfully!) stumbled upon Cannery Row. This is a fantastic book! What struck me about this book, perhaps most profoundly, is Steinbeck's sense of humor. More than his other titles, I found this book to be quite comical and clever throughout. I've always admired Steinbeck for his placement as one of the great American authors, yet his books are wonderfully approachable and available to the average reader. Don't let the "classic" distinction scare you off, read him - and put Cannery Row at the top of your list.

- My older son picked up a copy of this graphic novel at a library book sale. It's been languishing around the house for a few years. A week ago, it turned up on the kitchen table. On a lark, I picked it up and started reading it. I was immediately sucked in. While I'm not much on graphic novels, this one is well done. It's well drawn, the dialogue (and monologue) is first-rate, and the wit is, well, dripping. I'm happy I read it -- I had a blast. Now I need another cup of coffee, I think. While I find the pot, you go find this book and read it.
