REVIEW OF THE HERITAGE OF WORLD CIVILIZATIONS 8TH EDITION NOTES

- I like that there were a lot of different recipes with additional suggestions recipes for meals to accompany the tasty bread. Easy to use and follow.
- We got our bread machine (a Zojirushi BBCC-V20 which we are very happy with and I have reviewed on this site) and once we worked our way through the excellent owner's manual/recipe book we went searching for a good recipe book. My wife found this one and we have been happily working our way through its 300 terrific recipes. I made Old Fashioned Sesame Whet Bread (p. 112) for dinner this evening. With 300 to choose from, I can easily spend a lot more time picking out a bread than it takes to actually throw the ingredients into the machine. But it is not just a recipe book. In between sections of great bread recipes is a tremendous amount of information ranging from a list of customer service numbers for all the bread machine manufacturers to a discussion of the different kinds of wheat flour to how to build and maintain your own sourdough starter to the subtle differences in olive oils to . . . well, you get the idea. This is more than just a list of receipes. If you want to get one good bread machine book - this is the one to get.
