REVIEW OF MINI RESEARCH PAPER EXAMPLE

- The editor describes the Sutton Pocket Biographies as "Highly readable brief lives of those who have played a significant part in history, and whose contributions still influence contemporary culture". This phrase neatly summarizes "James Dean" by William Hall very well. It is a short book, about 100 small pages. Almost 50 years since his death, James Dean still has a substantial influence on contemporary culture. The book covers the principal facts and chronology of James Dean's short life. There is no whitewashing of gay issues, no unsubstantiated unsavory speculations and no new material. As such it is a useful and inexpensive book for someone who wants "Just give me the facts, m'am". It is a useful introduction to the life of James Dean if this is the first biography that you are reading. True die-hard fans will want more.

- Excellent book. Easy directions and explanations to implement the Crucial Confrontation Model.
