REVIEW OF FORD MONDEO DIESEL ESTATE 16 TDCI ECO ZETEC BUSINESS EDITION 5DR SS

- The author tells a good story but really needs to work harder. Even the main characters lack definition, and their personalities drift something awful. Some conversations make no sense except from the author's perspective - he alone knows what's going on. Alas, it is a good story, but the price in reader suffering is very high.
- Reading this excellent book, I was swept by the wordly grandeur of exotic (though corrupt and crude) Calcutta, India; and I was swept by the horror and mystery of pure evil as well. This book reads like a real-life story of a professional man who travels to a far away land and encounters the truly evil. The writing is top-notch and conjures up pictures quite deftly. This is a great horror novel. It'll keep you on the edge of your seat and you won't be able to put it down.
