REVIEW OF SOLUZIONI LIBRO FRANKENSTEIN

- Johnny in the Spot is one impressive read! Not only does it delve into one persons fascinating "alternative" lifestyle, also offering a peek into the life of a disabled person, but it made me take a closer look at my own values, standards and life. You find yourself relating to the interesting characters and detailed situations they find themselves in in a way that is surprising and at times disturbing. Ed Gallagher not only entertains you, but, most importantly, he makes you think.

- I grew up reading Steinbeck, and i love everything about him. His colourful landscapes, or the unique characters, and the poetic style of every novel. East of Eden ranks amongst the finest of Steinbeck's work, along with The grapes of Wrath and Of mice and men, but also the lesser known works which also astounded me, like To a god unknown. The length of this novel should not put anyone off, as it is an easy read that you won't want to put down. You'll end up wishing it was longer. This is a perfectly epic construe of literature. It is also great to see the recent revival of interest in this book, and many others like it. It gives the choice of reading back to the reader. This is a modern fable, and one that should last as long as the ones from the bible upon which Steinbeck constantly plays.
