REVIEW OF PRIMA MEDIA

- Very good book for a beginner user of a pressure cooker. A lot a basic things for using the cooker and some tips on cutting of vegetables, etc. also some good recipes. Also a chapter for troubleshooting. All in all a very good book for the price. Lists in detail recommended cooking time. It has a page on traditional cooking of a recipes and then a page on pressure cooker recipes.
- I have to say that the CELT guide has been the answer to my prayers. I have been wanting to teach English overseas for so long but did not have the information to aid my job search... until this guide came along. I intend to go to Thailand and thanks to the CELT guide I have been able to contact the schools there, and I now understand the visa hurdles I have to jump over. I believe that the CELT guide has been put together really well, is concise, and acts as a great point of departure for all of us wanting to teach away from home. Great job Mr Ward!
