REVIEW OF PORSCHE BOXSTER 986 FACTORY WORKSHOP SERVICE MANUAL COMPLET

- The book was in great condition and I immediately shipped it off to my hubby in Afghanistan to give him some more reading material to pass the time until he returns home. It's one of his favorites and since the movie should be coming out soon, he wanted to read the book again before he saw the movie. Thanks!

- Long before Frodo gained possession of the One Ring, before the great council in Rivendell or the terrors of the mines of Moria, there was another hobbit, Bilbo Baggins by name, who had his own adventure. This book relates that adventure. Though it explains various parts of the Lord of the Rings series (such as how Bilbo got the Ring), this is truly a tale independent of the well-known trilogy. Very little of the journey actually deals with the finding of the Ring, and the focus rests on Bilbo and his journey with Gandalf and a troop of dwarves. The story, as it is told, is of Bilbo's part in a quest to defeat the dragon Smaug and recover lost treasure and land of his dwarven companions'. The tale abounds in adventures, encounters with mystical creatures, hardships, and every other element for which Tolkien's stories are famous. This book was written for children (the reading being much easier than Tolkien's other works), but is a timeless classic which can doubtless be enjoyed by young and old alike.
