REVIEW OF AUTOMATED D VEHICLES

- This was a great book because it explained to me what type of arthritis I had. It then went on to explain how to manage the pain of arthritis safely. This book is also the ideal handbook to be used as a reference when you are talking to your doctor or pharmacist.

- Once again,McDermott's verbal mastery takes you to the place of which she writes as clearly as if looking through a window on the scenes she describes so vividly. However, compared to "Charming Billy", this piece is disappointing. While very well written descriptively, I found it slow. The opening act caught my attention and I continued to read hoping for more of the same allure...it was not to be found. I actually skipped paragaphs and entire pages and was able to continue as if the skipped parts were of no importance to the story at all. While I would recommend Ms. McDermott's work, I would not recommend this particular book.
