REVIEW OF AUDI C4 REPAIR MANUAL

- Heard this story as a child from my grandparents who were on German background. This story is just like they told it. Beautiful illustrations complete the story that swirled in my head so many years ago!!

- When I saw "Charlotte" on the shelf, I was intrigued that there might be one more manuscript that I hadn't heard of. It turns out to be a very readable retread of the "Sanditon" text that has been published in other forms. The author does a good job in recreating some of Austen's signature style, but it seems that the skeleton plot she received did not help her to adequately fill the 240 pages. Some chapters were full of the wit, satire and excellent characterizations typical of an Austen book--others just jumped quickly to cover plot points, and seemed slapdash. I would be curious to go back to other versions of "Sanditon" to see if they were more successful. As I said, this was a diverting text, I read through it in only 3 sittings--but it didn't have the depth of a "Persuasion", or the excellent characterizations of "Pride and Prejudice", or the conflicts and satisfying conclusions of any of her books.
