REVIEW OF ANOTHER PLACE AT THE TABLE

- I thoroughly enjoyed Tess, even though it left me raging and gnashing my teeth at times. No picture of Victorian life can be complete without reading this book first.
- To those of you who have only read "On theRoad", you need to read this book. Kerouacmade great strides as a writer afterhe wrote his first book. This book is a close asKerouac ever got to emulating a fine blowingjazz piece. Personally, this book introduced meto Zen and has sparked a life long interest inits pursuit.
