REVIEW OF SULLIVAN REALTY MINI PRACTICE SET ACCOUNTING ANSWERS

- This novel was extremely intriguing from a historical perspective as well as simply fun to read. I myself was never even aware that Anne Boleyn had a sister. The book was almost impossible to put down and although I grew faintly tired of the writing style by the end, I thouroughly enjoyed it and would greatly reccoment it.

- While everyone knows the story of Anne Boleyn and how she was beheaded by Henry VIII after he divorced his long-time wife, Katharine of Aragon, this book tells the story from her sister's point of view - very different from other books on this subject. Other reviews have included more details concerning the story so I will not include them here. This was a very entertaining portrait of a tumultuous time in England's history (certainly certain portions were fictionalized) but I found it a fascinating story that I did not want to put down until I finished it. And I promptly ordered other books by this author on this same era.
