REVIEW OF THE THIRD EYE LOIS DUNCAN

- I am surprised O'REILLY published such a weak book. To keep it short, it is one of those "click here, click there, you are done!" kind of books. I doesn't go much deeper than the Cocoa tutorials on Apple's developer site.
- This book was a school book written in 1896 to be read to 3rd and 4th graders. The stories are concise,(about three pages long) explaining the stories of the old testament, in chronological order. Very easy to read for devotions and easily understandable to children, while giving them all the important elements of the stories.
