REVIEW OF NORTON SAMPLER 8TH EDITION

- Great synopsis, an excellent reminder of the events that occurred in the original book. Artwork classic. Recommended for those into graphic novels.

- The 2nd half of the Hobbit is interesting. This is when the gang goes out and makes there way up the mountain towards Smog (the dragon). The book becomes an adventure and becomes quite interesting when Bilbo Baggins began using the powers that the ring possessed. Prior to the adventure, the book is boring and dull. The exposition is just confusing with all the new names and ideas. Since the story is fictatious, the setting also becomes an obstacle.
