- Came across this title and read due and was overwhelmed by the scope and breadth of this book. Should be a perennial best seller as it covers the range of human experiences through the world wars. Incredible leadership lessons contained in following Sam Damon through his life. A must read!
- Although the first read was a page turner, as I continued it was very apparent that a reread would be necessary. The use of sub plots was done quite well and in many cases I found myself being the actor. Perhaps 40 + years in education has that effect on you. Consequences of ones actions are both good and bad and we must learn to live with both, hopefully with emphasis on the positive. Life is a ministry and the field of education in some ways becomes or of a challenge than religion its self. I found myself saying "this happened to me". I would hope that some one might say "Well done, you have been a trusted servant" I, say thank "You Ms. Hunter, This is a must read."
