REVIEW OF 2014 FIREFIGHTER EXAM CANDIDATE PREPARATION GUIDE MASS

- Berlinski attempts to cover up his lack of writing effort and his lack of anything to really say with flowery prose. It didn't work for this reader. I was very disappointed in the lack of useful information in the book.

- Good book -- fascinating, intense, important -- but the Brooklyn reader who called his or her piece "HDWK -- How Do We Know?" should be ashamed. S/he claims to speak for all New Yorkers and claims to know what all Middle Americans think. (And how New York-centric that anywhere in the U.S. outside of New York is Middle America! I lived in New York and remember that snobbishness well.) S/he also claims that the plane might have been intercepted and shot down, implying that Beamer and his companions weren't heroes even if they were thwarting the hijackers as the missile was approaching. "Brooklyn" knows nothing about courage, heroism, or fairness. I'd hate to tell you where I wish he or she had been working last year.
