REVIEW OF THE ROLLEI 35 OPERATION MANUAL

- Isabel Allende has yet to disappoint me. Her books are delightful. I was introduced to her work through "Daughter of Fortune" and I've been hooked ever since. After having read almost everything Allende has published, Eva Luna remains one of my favorites. The characters and story are larger than life, but still somehow relatable. Follow this one up with "The Stories of Eva Luna".
- Very entertaining, funny and heart-warming at times. This must be the best among Roald Dahl's many books, and all his books are excellent.

The audio version is excellent as well, the reader made the scenes alive. My 7 year old son keeps imitating the british accent of the reader, it is hilarious. We listened to the CD's on the way to a ski trip. It made the 3 hour drive each way feel like minutes. We sat in the car for a chapter to finish before we got out to ski!
