REVIEW OF CAPTURING JOY THE STORY OF MAUD LEWIS

- I like the idea of not having to go online for each look up, and it works well (I've got Windows XP Pro on my machine). Downside is that it doesn't include a Thesaurus and there are words that exist that aren't there. One last comment: it says in the box that you get a free subscription for 1 yr. to the full features of M-W online (which is nice as the site has a Thesaurus), but there was no activation code or whatever for trying it out, and their support didn't support..

- The Adventures of Homer Price in the quaint town of Centerburg are flat out hilarious. Homer's uncle Hercules quickly sets the tone of disbelief by spinning some yarns that have just enough "truth" to them to be plausible. This is a truly a story of the American Scene in a time when people entertained themselves by gabbing with one another and singing songs together instead of hiding in the basement watching videos. Good old timey values like hucksterism, lying, and cheating face the good natured community of Centerburg and sometimes turn it upside down. Strange things happen in Centerburg, and the curious Homer Price is going to get to the bottom of it. Robert McClosky is also one of our finest illustrators and his lively drawings add texture and background to the story. Highly Recommended.
