REVIEW OF PHARMACOLOGY MNEMONICS BOOK PDF

- Edith Wharton's book Ethan Frome is a good book. Many people can relate to Ethan's situation of loving someone else, when they are already married to somebody. This plot is very captivating and because of this the reader connects with the characters. The characters in the story are very relatable, for example Ethan's shyness toward telling Mattie that he loved her, this relates to some guys today. To make the story more interesting Ethan should have followed through with his plans of running away to stay with Mattie. I also thought it a surprise that all three of the main characters Ethan, Zeena and Mattie ended up living together at the end of the book. I recommend this book to anyone but more toward women because its a love story.

- I started this book with intent to hate it, as 19th century literature is not usually my favorite. Surprisingly, I finished the book and actually looked back and realized I had enjoyed it. Although I found the bleak setting unconvincing, mostly because I was reading the much harsher "Shipping News" at the same time, the characters and the psychology were involving, and the ending was surprisingly satisfying, in a tragic sort of way.
