REVIEW OF LETTERA A UNA PROFESSORESSA PDF

- My problem isn't with the story, it's with this copy. If the character is reading something, you aren't. Every single time the author says that someone is reading something, it immediately cuts ahead to when they put the document away. For example, the entirety of the Legend of the Baskerville Curse is cut out, the article with the last Sir Baskerville's cause of death is cut out, a letter to the new Sir Baskerville is cut out... the list goes on. I've had to find another copy to fill in the blanks. The book is worth reading, but I'd spend the money to get an edition that actually has the whole story.

- If Amazon would have let me, I would have rated it *no* stars. This Kindle version of the "Hound of the Baskervilles" has a huge flaw: every time a character reads aloud from a text, that text is omitted from this edition. Here is an actual quote from my Kindle: "Dr. Mortimer [ . . . ] read in a high, cracking voice the following curious, old-world narrative: When Dr. Mortimer had finished reading this singular narrative ..." Considering that the omitted passages include the actual legend of the Hound, as well as the account of the death that brought the client to Holmes, this renders the story unreadable. Sadly, it looks like you get what you pay for in this instance...
