REVIEW OF LUDOVICO EINAUDI FLY SHEET MUSIC

- As a longtime fan of Gore Vidal I was disappointed in this latest work of his. I have read most of his work in recent times and have even given his books as gifts to friends, but this latest effort is not up to Vidal's usual high standard. The literary essays are fine and in several instances wonderful. However in the political essays there was a sameness about them collectively that seemed to render them shrill and unreadable. It is not the content that I object to, merely the repetition. There is only one essay on politics in this volume and Vidal has repackaged it several times, reheating and serving it up again and again.

- I'm so glad to find this book again. I have the original copy my mother had and passed onto me. I have read this book over and over again over the years and it is getting pretty used. I have known Bob Tininenko all of my life and it still amazes me that he went through this, it seems everytime I plan on seeing him it makes me want to read this book again. He is an amazing man and I'm so lucky to know him and his loving family. He is so interesting to talk to, funny, sarcastic, and a joy to be around. I'm getting this extra copy to lend to friends who want to hear this amazing story of survival. Ok, I'm starting to read it again today.
