REVIEW OF I HEART HOLLYWOOD 2 LINDSEY KELK

- This isn't the best book I've read in the last year, or even in the last month, but it was worth reading. Lucy and Zack were good together. I also liked Lucy's sister. The story line was a little lame, but in no way was the way in which Lucy met Zack silly. It was very plausible for her to have met the man of her dreams on the very day she felt her life was falling apart. However, I will say that the focus on Lucy's badly dyed hair was stupid.

- Definitely worth the price. My 18 month old loves all Thomas books and knows them by name and this one is "Thomas friends, Docks" in his words! A must for kids who love Thomas, Salty, Cranky and of course there are others like Harvey, Henry, and James in here too. It also introduces an octopus and a shark to the kids. Good read. Story is not very engaging for us adults since it is more like an instance than a full story, but my son seems to like it for now.
