REVIEW OF AR ANSWERS FOR ERAGON

- I can't add much to the other negative reviews, except to say that if Ms. Auel couldn't give her thousands of faithful fans an effort worthy of the previous books, she should have just let it (and us) go. If Jean Auel actually wrote this, then something is very, very wrong with her. Shame on her editor(s) and the publisher of this truly atrocious book, for wasting the money and, what's worse, the time of Ms. Auel's fans. I guess what with the ready made market, greed got the better of everyone involved. Well, they got my money this time. I hope they put it in the bank, because they won't get it again.

- I love this series and used to own the hard copy books. I heard the 6th book is coming out in March 2011 so I bought the first 5 books on Kindle so I could re-read them and be ready for the new release. This book, 5th in the series, has so many errors that it distracts from the story. Names spelled wrong, spelling errors, grammatical errors, and sometimes even a sentence or two that make no sense. Luckily since I have read the book in hard copy form I could figure out what it should have said, but it is very, very disappointing to pay money for a book that has so many errors. I can only hope this version is fixed and those of us who bought it get a free upgrade to a corrected book.
