- One of the greatest mysteries of all times is the Grail. There are so many theories about what it is that we can hardly decide what it might actually be. We know that it is hidden and we know that to discover it would be an ultimate experience. How often do we hear people say, "We want to find the Holy Grail?" Here's the thing about the Grail, we each must find it for ourselves. The reviewer below obviously hasn't! Adriana's book takes the reader on such a search for the Grail, a search set in a secluded monastery situated on a remote mountain far from the eyes of the secular world. Here a number of monks hide a secret that will threaten their lives and the lives of all who live there. Andre and Christian, a Templar and his scribe, are unwittingly thrown into a search for the mystery when a monk is murdered. They realise this is no ordinary monastery and as the bodies pile up they must find what is hidden before the ambitious inquisitor Rainerio Sacconi and the rest of a delegation (bent on evil)can use it for their own purposes. A supernatural whodunnit that stays with you long after you have read it.
