REVIEW OF HRM MULTIPLE CHOICE QUESTIONS WITH ANSWERS

- This should be required reading in all college programs before students begin their course specific courses. The second half is worth much thought. He is not into any specific religious belief, just spiritual and honest....and insightful.

- This was a gift for my young cousin who was graduating from high school. Serendipitously, one of her teachers had just been talking about the book to her. I read my copy that I've had since I was in high school about every five years (I'm 56 now). It reminds me why life is worth living even when hard times come and makes me savor the good times all that much more. Viktor Frankl's life was indicative of his philosophy. It is a simply written book with an extremely powerful message. This seems like a particularly nice edition.
