REVIEW OF DIN 7167

- Loved the movie. loved the soundtrack, although I wish live versions of the songs were included (especially Barbara Harris' "It don't worry me")The book is merely the icing on the cake.

• Something very strange is going on in the town of Bixby. A black rain has begun to fall turning everybody it touches into Homicidal Maniacs. Just why the black rain is falling is not explained by the author but it does give him the perfect excuse to indulge in his tired old Themes of Teenage Lust, Violence and Rape which are so prevalent in his books. I keep on reading Laymon in the unrealized hope that perhaps one day he just might have written something original. However as usual he repeats his usual Themes ad nauseum. If I was a teenager I would take serious offence at the way people of my age are always portrayed in his books, namely Lust Crazy Kids With Out Of Control Raging Hormonal Desires. I give this book 5 stars because I live in the vain hope of reading something fresh and new from Laymon and once again he has delivered his usual trash masquerading as Horror and I was naive enough to buy this book thinking it may be different from the rest of his works.
