REVIEW OF ILLUSTRATED CABINETMAKING HOW TO DESIGN AND CONSTRUCT FURNITURE THAT WORKS

- I read this book for school and it was really confusing. Half the book didn't make sense. I dont suggest it because its real confusing. The Illustrated Man by Ray Bradbury is alot better. Because its easier to understand.

- *Will Holloway and Jim Nightshade, two very different boys joined together by an evil carnival that thrives on misery and sadness. Will and Jim, two thirteen year old boys living in a small town in Illinois, were best friends since they were born and nothing separated them, nothing yet. An evil carnival comes to town, which is strange because carnivals stop coming after Labor Day, but also because it is named Cooger & Dark's Pandemonium Shadow Show. Will's father Charles Holloway thinks that this carnival is bad news. When the carnival comes Will realizes that the carnival is strange, but Jim is mesmerized by it. This carnival is strange, but more like evil. Strange things happen at the carnival, people go missing, the mirror maze shows everything but yourself, and the carousel makes you younger or older. Will and Jim set out to defeat the carnivals freaks and owners Cooger and Dark with help from Will's father. The boys soon realize how to destroy the carnival with their own most important emotions happiness and love. Something Wicked This Way Comes, by Ray Bradbury was an exciting story about the evil of a carnival, I recommend it to anyone who wants to read an exciting story about overcoming evil.*One reason I liked this book is because the character development. Will who seems so nice and shy, when pressured to do the right thing can become mean and tough. For example when Jim attempts to get on the carousel Will punches him so he cannot become older and leave him. Another character I like is Jim because he changes from wanting to get on the carousel, then when he realizes that the carnival is pure evil he decides that he doesn't want to.*Another reason I liked this book is because of the interesting plot. Ray Bradbury has a great imagination in creating the characters and their roles in the story. Some of Bradbury's characters were unnecessary though, like the Lightning rod salesman who appears in the beginning of the book and then the rest of the book as a dwarf, but Ray Bradbury never reveals what happens to the man. Bradbury is very creative in his way of writing, he writes in metaphors and similes for most of the book, which can become confusing at some times but make it sound cool.*Another reason I like this book is because Ray Bradbury keeps you on your toes by creating a sense of suspense. Bradbury hooks you in the prologue by shaping his words to make the book seem interesting, like I the quote "But this year Halloween arrived early." Bradbury always ended the chapters with a metaphor that left you wanting more.*Something Wicked This Way Comes was a thrilling book with many twist and turns. A few reasons I liked this book was because the character development, its interesting plot, and its ongoing suspense factor. I recommend this book to anyone who likes a book about overcoming evil. Something Wicked This Way Comes, by Ray Bradbury was a very good book with many interesting twist and turns.M.Hom *:-)*(-:*
