REVIEW OF READING EXPLORER 4 ANSWER KEY

- This book is the first in a series, one of which was ranked highly as a great summer read. To be fair, it is easy to read (unless typos frustrate you) and the subject matter is light and entertaining. Your time could, however, be better spent reading Shakespeare or Jane Austen in the original. Willig has shamelessly incorporated not only the setting but also the unique characters and even the phrasing from earlier, better works.
- Our book club picked this up sort of at random, liking the historical aspect and scarlet pimpernel references. But what a great pleasure it was! The writing is witty and funny---the Eloise bits are spot-on---and Willig paints a beautiful picture of regency england and france, with some adventure and romance along the way. Plus, I admit, I have a huge crush on Richard. I hope there are many more heroes like him to come!
