REVIEW OF SUPER COOPER SALA LA GIORNATA

- Running Blind is action packed just as all the Jack Reacher books are. I have read most of them and hope to read the balance soon.

- From a European point of view it is interesting to see how American Christianity tries to deal with its weaknesses and sins. For over a century many of the world most influential revivals and missionary movements have originated in the US. The results are the salvation, healing and discipling of literally millions across its borders. One just has to wonder what the world would have looked like without the American Christians who no doubt have many weaknesses and sins. Just like anywhere else in the world and in church history, by the way. The main question is: How does God deal with the sins of his people? Does He first save them by grace, then tell them to deal with all their sins as quickly as possible and if his patience runs out, pours out his anger? I don't see that in Scripture where God's patience is said to be a powerful agent for change for the better. This is what Romans 2:4. speaks about. I can testify to this truth in my own life (almost 27 years born again now) and in the lives of many children of God around me. If this is how God deals with individuals it follows that He does the same with groups of individuals in just the same way, including the United States of America. God has been developing his Church worldwide for 20 centuries now. Simple statistics prove it. Anyone knowing church history will confirm it. Yes there may be temporary setbacks like in the book of Judges, but the overall line is one that goes up and not one that goes down. God loves America, just like He loves the Netherlands (where I am from), Belgium, Germany, Russia you name it. Predictions about a nation's future first need to be held against the light of the Gospel, especially the nature of God as revealed in Scripture, to prove their validity. Is God going to destroy America? No. Neither is He going to destroy the Netherlands, England, Russia. Instead He will continue to call and empower people to set the nations free, i.e. the people who will not allow themselves to be discouraged by books that are contrary to the nature and plan of God in this era of the New Covenant.
