REVIEW OF ECLIPSE AND JAVA FOR TOTAL BEGINNERS TUTORIAL COMPANION DOCUMENT

- Clan of the Cave Bear was required reading my sophomore year in high school. I read it 20+ times, it was so wonderful. I read 2-4 a fair number of times, and anxiously awaited #5. When it was finally released, after 10 years of waiting, I bought an autographed hardcover copy. 2 days later I was kicking myself for wasting the money. What an awful follow up to what was such a promising story. This book was dreadful, trite, boring, and it took a supreme effort for me to even finish it the first time. Needless to say, that expensive hardback copy wound up in the Goodwill pile. I'm never going to read it again.

- Dreary book that advances the story very little. The settlement Ayla ends up in reminds me very much of some sort of prehistoric country club where mate-swapping looms on the horizon and everybody drinks alcoholic barma during dawn-of-man cocktail hour. The story of the taming of Wolf and Whinney is told repeatedly and the recitation of the "Mothers Song" seems to appear every few pages and makes one yearn for a male deity to show up. Save your money and get it from the library.
