REVIEW OF PETERS AND CO JUNE 3 4 2014

CEQUENCE ENERGY LTD

- I think you guys need to get lives and but out some better books then this one.
- The underlying premise is this: it's evil to force men to do good. There are some cheesy moments, and others that are mildly implausible. But the book resonates with incontrovertible truths, fully three-dimensional characters, and an extraordinarily fast-paced storyline. It is reminiscent of other dystopian books like Brave New World or 1984, but at the same time it's strikingly original, rather more accessible, and not nearly as disconcerting. It is an assertion that the freedom to chose evil is better than forced rectitude; a testament to the triumph of human goodness over the vices of evil. I would absolutely recommend this book.
