REVIEW OF GRADE 12 LIFE ORIENTATION MEMORANDUM JUNE EXAM

• What a wonderful book to show children suffering from abuse that they aren't alone. 11 year old Laurie lives with her abusive mother, Annabelle, who makes Laurie feel as if she has to make excuses and lie for all of her 'accidents' in which her mother causes. Laurie endures more abuse than she can handle, but finds solace in a dog she 'adopts.' She hides this dog and cares for it, as it provides one of her only sources of safety and happiness. When Annabelle attacks the dog, things change. This book should be in every school library, and every media specialist should be familiar with it. A child who is going through what Laurie goes through might be more inclined to talk knowing that they are not alone.

• Maybury does an excellent job of telling "the rest of the story". The evils of Joseph Stalin are detailed & U.S. propaganda campaigns are exposed. Every American should read this and ask why in the world our politicians have forever embroiled us in the internal affairs of warring Europe? The foreign policy approaches of George Washington & Thomas Jefferson will hopefully be reconsidered by learned individuals after reading this.
