REVIEW OF GIRL WASH YOUR FACE

- It was an unexpected book. Strange. I rather liked it for its love story. It is hard to describe. A good book worth a read.
- Similar in some respects to other Victorian era novels, this one is more exciting than most. Things happen. There is mystery and intrigue. Even so, it's difficult at times not to get fed up with the flowery, laborious, self-aware banter that men and women of the day seemed required to engage in. Some of the prose is very clever, and that's always fun to hear. But there are times when you want to just shout: GET TO THE POINT, ALREADY! Nonetheless, there's a few great moments, and it's a fun book.
