REVIEW OF MANUAL DE ASTRA 2001

- This is a brave write, most people who trully believe in Christ would never think of crossing the lines so boldly. The fact that God could be imperfect and admit imperfection has caused us to fail, needing the sacrifice of the Lamb of God. This book covers the bases quite extensively, Jack is more than well versed, from the way he writes, he has a super clear understanding of the way each book in the Bible was meant to be interpreted by it's original writers. That was accomplished by a great deal of research, very evident in this very strongly supported book. I am happy with it, brings a new twist of reality that is faith strengthening. I want to recommend another good book that uses finger print writing style (Of Moses ect.) to get the crisis straight, also of Christ's true purpose, SB 1 or God By Karl Mark Maddox

- Here we have the complete cannon of Conan Doyle's Sherlock Holmes works. Four Novels and 56 short stories. Usually, collections like this are poorly put together with unnecessary frills and padding. Here we have nothing but pure gold. Anyone who likes mystery, or literature must read the cannon of Holmes. See the famous expressions like "the game is a foot", and "when you have eliminated the impossible, whatever remains, however improbable must be the truth"... Most enjoyable to me are Holmes amazing observations -where he looks at someone and can tell what they had for breakfast, and where they were a week ago from the dust on their shoes. It's really a fun read! So, if you want to solve the mystery of what to read next, the answer is elementary my good friends... Buy this book! Relic113
