REVIEW OF FSA ELA WRITING TRAINING TEST QUESTIONS FSASSESSMENTS

- A sweeping book. Diamond sketches out the path of cataclysm. Environmental harm, climate alteration, fast population growth, and imprudent political choices were all factors in the ruin of some societies, but other societies found solutions and are surviving. Similar troubles face us today and have already brought calamity to Rwanda and Haiti, even as China and Australia are trying to muddle through in ground-breaking ways. Despite our own society's apparently limitless possessions and unequaled political power, portentous warning signs have begun to come into sight even in ecologically strong areas like Montana. This is an important book that raises many important questions. Every concerned person should read it.

- I found the book well researched and well written. A little slow at the beginning, but that is where the stage was set. This book is quite scary.
