REVIEW OF COMPANY LAW QUESTION PAPERS

- I ordered it with the intention of walking down the path of childhood long since forgotten. I am as enthralled with the book now as I was thirty years ago. It is inspiring and just deliteful. Nancy Drew has endured the test of time and come out still the best at what she does.

- I just read this book with my daughter, actually she read it aloud to me. We enjoyed the photos very much. We laughed, gasped and said "uh-oh" a lot. I must admit to finding the spanking scene a bit odd for a children's book but my daughter didn't seem to think anything of it. And no, she has never experienced anything like that herself. Maybe it is because she reads a lot of british children's books i.e Enid Blyton's Famous five series and Roald Dahl books that the darker side of kids lit does not faze her. I came to Amazon to find out what others thought of this book and was not surprised what I found. It all became clear when I learned a little about the author's early life. What a creative way to express her pain. Kids wont see any of those elements and wont care to either, they'll just enjoy the story.
