REVIEW OF IKA NATASSA PDF

- To that Mike guy and his one star rating: what? Did you even finish the book? The ending is quite interesting, to say the least. While i do agree Stackpole's style can be somewhat dry at times, he does slowly input detail that brings the world, and most importantly the plot to life. There are a good handful of surprises in the book to keep it lively. His battle descriptions are very interesting from a military standpoint but lack much of the emotion that would draw me deeper into them. Stackpole presents the battle tactics in a clean, logical way that makes it easy to draw parallels to modern warfare. For the most part it is a step above the usual fantasy series released these days and a worthy read. Definitely better than Fortress, and almost as good as Dark

Glory War.

- A relative loaned me Snow Warrior a few years ago and I have been seeking a copy for myself ever since. What an adventure. It is thrilling, spellbinding, unforgettable. You will never forget Subotai, I promise. For the life of me I don't understand why it is not better known. If I had enough money I would buy it myself for anyone who would read it. No adventure reader should miss out on this one -- do yourself a big favor; get it now. (I have no financial interest in this book whatsoever, and I don't know the author)
