REVIEW OF DOWNLOAD EXPLORING LIFESPAN DEVELOPMENT 3RD EDITION PDF

- A John Grisham novel, where the courtroom drama is minimal - it ends in the first few pages itself. It is so different from "The Client" or the "Runaway Jury". The author has managed to sprinkle humor at several places - jus to quote - the Ivy league "Syracuse" and Will being rechristened as Willie. There are times when the story wanders off and it is difficult to understand what the author wants to convey thro those narrations. The story is a nail-biter. However, it is so not because you wanna know "What happens next ?" but want to know "what the author is taking you with this ?". I read this on my loooong flight from San Jose to Cincinnati. It was a worthy read !

- Superbly translated into English by Emi Shimokawa, Ashes is a gritty, hard-boiled mystery written by Kenzo Kitakata, a Japanese author who is so popular in his native Japan that not one of his more than one hundred novels has ever gone out of print! Presenting the mind and thoughts of a middle-aged gangster in Tokyo's multilayered underworld, Ashes depicts yakuza (Japanese mafia) life with a unique understanding and edge-of-your seat reality. Highly recommended reading for mystery/suspense enthusiasts, Ashes clearly documents Kenzo Kitakata as a world class literary talent.
