REVIEW OF MR BEAN PENGUIN READERS

- This is one of the best books I've read in years. The characters are believable and endearing, there is plenty of action, and the ending satisfies. I highly recommend it.
- i read this book as a class project and i thought it had a very slow start but after i got to the second or third chapter i really got into it i would recomend this book to alot of people because i cant stop saying good things about this book. people that know me think im crazy because i finished this book within my first week of starting it and the look at it and think that it is so long but once i started i really got into it.
