REVIEW OF CORPORATE FINANCE TEST ANSWERS

- Yeah, this book is a bit more sensitive. In fact, I found myself "sighing" after a couple of the chapters and thinking, wow that was a really tender moment or the people had some profound self revelations on that one. But most of the chapters are in the same wacky tradition of David Sedaris's earlier work. Secretly, I wanted more insanity though... The poker story with his childhood friends make up for this--it's my favorite one, I fell out of bed laughing.

- If it weren't for the misinformation and outright lies, I wonder if there would be anything left to this book. Boettner's depiction of Catholicism and Catholics doesn't square with the practice or history of the Catholic faith. Go elsewhere for useful information. 1 star is too many in this case.
