REVIEW OF CONTROL SYSTEM BOOK BHIDE DOWNLOAD

- Although a good read, nice build up, a couple of nasty bad guys including a Pope and his side kick who seemed to have been trained in a terrorist camp, the ending was unbelievable and a quite strained. I just can't imagine the BVM (Blessed Virgin Mary) agreeing with liberals on the issues of today's citizens. Understanding and empathizing with their plight, yes, but that is as far as I would go.

- I found the basic concept of this book, that particularly ugly members of our future technocracy are considered expendable, to be patently untenable. Perhaps that's just wishful thinking on my part and Gardner has it right - alas!As we progress in this, Festina Ramos' absorbing adventure, we befriend a number of well fleshed out and interesting characters. I admit to feeling that the characterization, as the plot, was a bit heavy handed, but I certainly enjoyed it.Swept along in her discovery of the secrets of the exile planet Melaquin, Festina gradually loses everything that she holds dear. She remains firmly rooted in her distinct personality, however, and finally triumphs in a most unexpected way.This book, like many of my favorites, didn't end as I turned the last page. Even now, mulling over it to write this review, I am struck by new realizations of the deeper purpose and meaning of Melaquin, that..... Noooooo, you'll have to read it yourself.Bravo James Alan Gardner, and thank you. I'll certainly look for more Festina and more Gardner.
