REVIEW OF FACTS AND FIGURES 4TH EDITION PATRICIA ACKERT

- This is a problem that happens with a lot of a cookbook - the publishing companies don't know how format them for ebooks. The ingredients lists are scattered all over the book, the layout is atrocious and half of the links in the table of contents don't go anywhere and usually make my Kindle crash and freeze. Absolutely awful. The recipes themselves look great, but my god it's a pain in the ass to use so I probably won't bother making any of them.

- I've read Dune (at the subsequent 5 sequels) at least 6 times now over the past 20 years. It really changes your outlook on life. Frank Herbert had a wonderful sense of society and a great imagination to create such an astonishing world. David Lynch tried his best to capture that imagination when he made the film version of Dune. Visually, it's a great movie; however, it's difficult to capture all of the book's nuances in just a few short hours. If you've seen the movie, READ THE BOOK! If you haven't seen the move, STILL READ THE BOOK!
