REVIEW OF BY JAKE BARTON I DREAMED I WAS A VIDEO GAME

- Wanted a book that would give our grandson a bit of history that we enjoyed as children. Coupled with the coonskin hat we gave him it was a big hit.
- Dr. Groth's work is unique in holocaust studies. It is by a survivor who interviewed survivors to gain statistically valid insights into their experiences, knowledge, and attitudes both before the holocaust and after. Dr. Groth's approach is sympathetic but scholarly and objective. Of particular interest is his own assessment of the scholarship of others in this field. Although he recognizes, of course, the brutality of many Germans, he rejects the Goldhagen conclusion that the German people as a whole were particularly conditioned and prepared to perpetrate the holocaust.
