REVIEW OF YAMAHA LAGENDA 110Z OUTBOARD SERVICE MANUAL

- This is one of the best books I've ever read. my best friend told me about it, promising to bring it to school soon, and that night my mom brought home the second book from the library. Now me, my best friend and another friend are totally obsessed with these books. I'm waiting for the sixth one to arrive.The story is about how Rusty, a ordinary house cat goes out into the woods one night and meets a cat from ThunderClan, Later joining ThunderClan and getting a new name (Firepaw). Inside the clan, deadly secrets are kept hidden by one of Firepaw's best friends. Outside, a Mean and horrid leader from a different Clan drives out yet another Clan(and there's one more Clan, too!).I won't say anything else, as not to ruin the plot, but I will say this: This is a great book. I advise it to anyone who likes cats and/or fantasy.

- My daughter came across this book in her first grade classroom, at age 7, as something to read during quiet time while waiting for other kids to finish working. Her teacher let her "take it home" to keep reading. That was ten years ago and we still have that edition that started it all. She is now almost 17, a junior in high school, and still picking up the newest books as they come out. There are hundred of reviews on here that will tell you how amazing the series is, no need for me to recap that. Over the years my curiosity has led me to read some as well, and I couldn't be more pleased with a series choice for her. Lessons on love, life, loyalty, betrayal, responsibility, kindness, humility, just to name a few, and a hearwarming storyline to boot....probably somewhere around 50 books later, the authors still have the ability to make readers of every age, laugh, cry, mourn and cheer their beloved cats. Thank you girls, for giving my daughter a love that has spanned her childhood.
