REVIEW OF GHANASHYAM VAIDYA PRACTICAL GUIDE

- I have climbed out of bed to write this for you, because I can take it no longer. Whoever made the kindle version should be fired. The book itself is great. However, random missing spaces, extra spaces, italics that begin or end when they shouldn't, mis-spellings of stillsuit as "stulsuit"....Please, buy another version. This is an embarrassment to e-publishing....and you'd think with it being on the computer it'd be easier to check for errors. Guess not.Look elsewhere for your ebook copy of Dune.

- When you read something this good all you need to say is "It's a great book," that's all. This is one of those books that you wish it would never end, but unfortunately it does, but then you get to read the sequels. This is Frank Herbert's masterpiece that started a saga and turned into several movies.The story is about young Paul Atreides (son of Duke Leto Ateides) and his family who are moving to take control of the planet Arrakis also known as Dune. Dune, however, is not a normal planet, it is all desert and is the only source of "spice," the life blood of the human race. While on Dune they must overcome the Harkoneans, a noble house that will do anything to gain power. Over all this is one of the best books I've ever read and definitely the best sci-fi I've ever read. This is truly a master piece more than worthy of Frank Herbert's name. From the amazing story and great detail and description this is an astoundingly interesting book one you should read even if you don't like sci-fi.
