REVIEW OF ONE UP ON WALL STREET HOW TO USE WHAT YOU ALREADY KNOW MAKE MONEY IN THE MARKET PETER LYNCH

- Okay, okay, nobody is going to say that this is great literature. Nonetheless, it's a fun read for those days when you don't care about great literature.
- The horrors of what some seminaries/teachers let happen during the late 60's thru early 90's has given us much of the corruption we see today. It was mentioned by another reviewer that Rose(author) was blaming Vatican II for many of these problems. In reading the book my take was Rose was blaming a convenient misinterpretation of what Vatican II was actually saying. This book needs to be read by Catholics! For those who innocently propose a liberal or secular agenda without understanding the damage they are doing to their faith and Church, need to have their eyes opened. There is so much spin out in the media it is very easy to misunderstand the difference between unchanging truth and contemporary culture. This is no small matter. Just last week a newly appointed Nun to the parish introduced a new CCD book that would be teaching our children Catholicism. One of the themes is how we need to be thankful for the "women's movement", references to Mother Earth/Father Sky, and a continual litany of New Age mumbo-jumbo. Read also "The Hidden Dangers of the Rainbow". Catholics for a Free Choice and Dignity, although made up of supposed Catholics, preach lifestyles that do not follow Catholic teaching, is political and very in your face (both have web pages) The Church is where one receives spiritual food not the latest political agenda. If this element is so anti-Rome/anti-Church, why don't they go off and start their own Church or join the many Protestant Churches that embrace their thinking? Why do they feel they have a responsibility, a mission, to destroy or change to their liking what many of us hold dear? Martin Luther when he strongly disagreed with the Church left and started his own. Another eye opener is "Harmful to Minors" by J. Levin treating us to an in-depth study of the much needed sexual liberation of our children and teens. Her book refers in glowing terms to Catholics for a Free Choice and I believe Dignity. If not Dignity I'm sure it was an oversight. As my mother would say, Birds of a feather, flock together.
