REVIEW OF THE ULTIMATE PLAYBOY

- I have been wanting this book "A Woman of Substance" for my own personal library for several years now. The reseller delivered my book promptly and the book is in excellent condition. I treasure my books, and this book is a welcome addition. And I am reading it again (having read it when it was first published - loaned to me by a dear friend) and I have never been able to get the story out of my head. I can only add how delighted I am to have my own copy of this wonderful story to read again and again.

- If you were like me you read David Moody's first novel Autumn and were excited about the novel to follow: Autumn: The City. The book is bad I don't know where to start. Probably my biggest disappointment is in Moody's zombies. They are NOT a threat. They stumble along in almost as slowly as the pace of the book. And the book is SLLLLLLLLLOOOOOOWWWWWW! The zombie threat is only in numbers. But they are NOT aggressive. Perhaps Moody is saving the good stuff for the 3rd book. I can only hope so, as I was stupid and bought books 2 and 3 together. Do yourself a favor and SKIP this one.
