REVIEW OF AROHANA S R2 M1 P N2 D2 S

- This book was quite possibly the worst book i've ever had to read. No wait, the worst ever was The Pearl! What is wrong with Steinbeck? Why does he feel he needs to kill main characters? I would seriously recomend that you never read this book ever. If you have to for highschool, I feel extremely sorry for you. In conclusion I just have to say George, just let Lennie tend the Frickin' rabbits and Kino, throw the pearl away already!
- Tyler W, Student at MLMSIn Of Mice and Men. John Steinbeck really explained the life and turmoil of a hobo during the Great Depression. Through his story of Lennie and George, he describes their journey of trying to fulfill his dream. Steinbeck describes in great detail the setting of a ranch in California. The ranch is comprised of a main house, a couple of bunkhouses and a barn. The main characters are the are the hobo's Lenny and George. Lenny is kind of retarded and cannot take care of himself. Lenny is really big with a very bulky frame. George is not very big and takes care of Lenny. He promised Lenny's aunt that he would take care of him. Lenny likes to touch soft things that sometimes get him in trouble. The main idea in the story Of Mice And Men is George and Lenny goes from town to town looking for work. Lenny often allows his urges to get them in trouble. They were running from Weed after Lenny's charged with rape and come to this ranch. George always reminds Lennie that they will "live of the fatta the land." (Steinbeck pg. 14). George tells Lenny that the ranch will have "A kitchen, orchard, apples, and peaches, and a few berries" (Steinbeck Pg. 57)I would recommend this book to all middle school reading classes. It's a great book especially with the tape recorded by Gary Sanice. The book had some curse words in the book but I think middle school students should be able to deal with them. The book also has some funny parts, which make the book fun too read.
