REVIEW OF EASY ACOUSTIC GUITAR SONGS EASY GUITAR WITH NOTES TAB

- This is definitely one of my favorite books! I cannot wait to read the next one!
- First, I did not know anything about the writer when I picked up the book at my local book store. I just wanted a fresh story for the weekend. I found myself baffled at the low quality of it all. The story is the most stereotypical thing you could ever come up with, still, that was the only thing I could actually enjoy. That is... if I just skipped reading more than perhaps one word each three lines. The characters are non-sensical and flat, the descriptions of the surroundings uninteresting and the dialogs are so stiff that you want to weep. Christopher just doesn't have any feel for drama. I found myself thinking that I actually could have written this. Perhaps even better. And then I read about Christopher and realized that I actually did write stuff like this when I was in that age. The difference between me and Mr. Paolini is that I read my own work and realized that it just wasn't good enough. Just to sum it up: I am very hard pressed to come up with any piece of fantasy that I've read that is actually worse than this book.
