REVIEW OF STAFF ADMINISTRATOR GUIDE TO LIBRARY RESOURCES SERVICES

- I've seen and enjoyed just about every film version of "A Christmas Carol," but reading this classic was just as pleasurable if not more so. My favorite film version is the one with Alastair Simm as Scrooge and I couldn't help but match many of the actors from that film to the characters in the book as I was reading it, but that never took away from my experience and I think actually enhanced it. The book was actually quite a bit shorter than I expected, a little over a hundred pages, but it was rich and well worth the read. Highly recommended!
- This was a Christmas gift that hit the mark. The pictures were very good and augmented the story. It was great to have the original text.
