REVIEW OF SUZUKI OUTBOARD OWNERS MANUAL

- I certainly agree with this book's second reviewr. I urge other readers to completely disregard Ms. Boston's appraisal...She is overly critical in addition to being ignorant of regency vocabulary. English is an ever-evolving language, and there will, of course, be words that were once used that have fallen out of common usage. Pity for her that she can't appreciate the author's success in reserecting a regency "feel" for her book.

- With all the publicity surrounding this book, I was hoping for a great summer romance--'a woman conquers her greatest fears and overcomes her tentative inclinations in order to love again!' It was a good one night read. It actually seemed like a rough draft of a great book--fine, but not very satisfying. If you must, buy a used copy, or borrow one from the library.
